EPIPHANY HOME BLESSING WITH CHALK

It has been a tradition in the Catholic Church to hand out blessed chalk on the Feast of the Epiphany as part of blessing one's home in the New Year. Blessed chalk will be available for you to take home after Mass this Sunday.

Use the blessed chalk to write

20 + C + M + B + 19

above the doorways, 2019 for the year; C, M, B for the three Magi – Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar – and for Christus Mansionem Benedicat, Latin for “May Christ bless this house.” The following prayer is said:

Lord God of heaven and earth, you revealed your only-begotten Son to every nation by the guidance of a star. Bless this house and all who inhabit it. Fill us with the light of Christ, that our concern for others may reflect your love. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

Men and women of every generation need on their pilgrim journey to be directed: what star can we therefore follow? After coming to rest “over the place where the child was”, the purpose of the star that guided the Magi ended, but its spiritual light is always present in the Word of the Gospel, which is still able today to guide every person to Jesus. This same Word, which is none other than the reflection of Christ, true man and true God, is authoritatively echoed by the Church for every well-disposed heart. The Church, too, therefore, carries out the mission of the star for humanity. But something of the sort could be said of each Christian, called to illuminate the path of the brethren by word and example of life. — Benedict XVI

PARISH BOOK CLUB

The Parish Book Club will meet again on Wednesday, 16 January from 6:30–8:00 p.m. in the Undercroft at Our Saviour to discuss The Alchemist by Paulo Coelho. We have only one requirement: please read the selection in advance to participate in the discussion.

SECOND COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND

The Catholic University of America is unique among universities in the United States — even among Catholic universities. Established by Pope Leo XIII and the bishops of the United States in 1887, it is the national university of the Catholic Church. In addition to alumni who live in the Archdiocese, more than one third of the United States bishops and 12,000 priests and religious are Catholic University alumni, including five of the six American cardinal archbishops. Through its twelve schools and twenty-three research centers located in the nation's capital, every year the University provides an education grounded in the Catholic intellectual tradition to almost 7,000 students. This weekend, we are taking up the national collection for The Catholic University of America. Your investment will enable the University to continue to support the Church and to advance its work of preparing the next generation of leadership, both religious and lay, of our Church and nation. Thank you for your generosity. Learn more at collection.catholic.edu.

The second collection taken up next Sunday, 13 January, will be the monthly collection for the restoration and maintenance of our parish buildings.
