SYMPATHY

We offer our prayers for the soul of John J. Zack, Jr. who recently passed away. Our sympathy to his family members and to all who grieve his loss.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord. May he rest in peace. May the angels lead him to paradise.

In Our Prayers

Stories for All Seasons

Twelfth Sunday: Jesus Walks on Stormy Seas

Theme: Faith bolsters peace in our life.

Our age has some techniques for relaxation. On a beautiful day in the park a young father was pushing his screaming child in his stroller. As the father wheeled his infant son along the path, he kept murmuring, “Easy now, Donald. Just keep calm, Donald. It’s all right, Donald. Just relax, Donald. It’s gonna be all right, Donald . . .”

A woman passing by said to the young father, “You certainly know how to talk to an upset child - quietly and gently.” The women then leaned over the stroller cooed, “What seems to be the trouble, Donald?” The father said quickly, “Oh, no . . . He’s Henry. I’m Donald!”

Application: In times of unrest or crisis, do we pray in faith?
