Summer Humor I

During the course of the year, I come across many funny items which I save for two summer columns. I hope you enjoy these as much as I did.

Taking Up A Collection

The collection plate was being passed in a Plaquemine, LA church, and little Mary's father gave her $2 "to give to Jesus."

As the usher approached their pew, a concerned Mary blurted out, "Daddy, that's not Jesus, its Sophie's Daddy!"

There wasn't even a collection plate at the open-air revival meeting so the parson provided his hat. It was passed, but returned empty. The preacher looked casually inside, bowed his head and prayed..."Lord, I'm thankful to get the hat back."

An imaginative inventor has designed a new offering plate for churches. The ingenious invention receives gifts of a dollar or more on a plush cushion with silent graciousness. But when half dollars are dropped in, it rings a bell; when quarters are given, it blows a whistle; when dimes are slipped in, it fires a shot. But when someone refuses to give, it takes their picture.

One Liners

Words reportedly first said on Noah's Ark: "Are we there yet?"

"He (an attorney) has the gift of compressing the largest amount of words into the smallest amount of thought."

-Winston Churchill

"It's not how old you are but how you are old."

-Marie Dressler

"My choices in life were either to be a piano player in a bordello or a politician, and to tell the truth, there's hardly any difference."

-President Harry Truman

"If you get to thinkin' you're a person of some influence, try orderin' somebody else's dog around."

- Advice from an old farmer

"Some people dig their graves with their teeth."

-Benjamin Franklin

The Gospel Doctrine teacher said, "Next Sunday, for our lesson on honesty, I'd like you to ready the 17th chapter of Mark."

On the following Sunday, the teacher said, "Now then, all of you who have read the 17th chapter of Mark, please raise your hand." Nearly every hand in the congregation went up.

"You are the very people I want to talk to," the teacher said. "There is no 17th chapter of Mark."

Court Room Dialogue

Actual questions and answers recorded by a court reporter:

ATTORNEY: "Doctor, before you performed the autopsy, did you check for a pulse?"

DOCTOR: "No."

ATTORNEY: "Did you check for breathing?"

DOCTOR: "No."

ATTORNEY: "So, then it is possible that the patient was alive when you began the autopsy?"

DOCTOR: "No."

ATTORNEY: "How can you be so sure, Doctor?"

DOCTOR: "Because his brain was sitting on my desk in a jar."

ATTORNEY: "I see, but could the patient have still been alive, nevertheless?"

DOCTOR: "Yes, it is possible that he could have been alive and practicing law."

Words of Pope Francis

The Culture of Waste

“The ‘culture of waste’ tends to become a common mentality that infects everyone. Human life, the person, is no longer seen as a primary value to be respected and safeguarded, especially if that person is poor or disabled or not yet useful, like the unborn child, or is no longer of any use, like the elderly person. This culture of waste has also made us insensitive to wasting and throwing out excess foodstuffs, which is especially condemnable when, in every part of the world, unfortunately, many individuals and families suffer hunger and malnutrition. There was a time when our grandparents were very careful not to throw away any leftover food. Consumerism has induced us to be accustomed to excess and to the daily waste of food, whose value, which goes far beyond mere financial parameters, we are no longer able to judge correctly. Let us remember well, however, that whenever food is thrown out, it is as if it were stolen from the table of the poor, from the hungry. I ask everyone to reflect on the problem of the loss and waste of food, to identify ways and approaches that, by seriously dealing with this problem, convey solidarity and sharing with the underprivileged.”
