The Grand Knight's Report

I am sorry this report is late had to upgrade my iPad it kept freezing up.

We had a good December. We had our Christmas Party. I believe a good time was had by all the good food, fellowship, and entertainment. We had our VA visit and gave out Christmas card made by St Jerome School kids. I hope a good and blessed Christmas was had by all Brother Knights and family. Have a Happy New Year may GOD bring you many gifts and blessings throughout the year.

We start January with a bang and that's not exaggerating, ha ha. We have no meeting on January 1 but have regular meeting on Jan 15th with officers meeting Jan 8th. On Jan 7th we have a Patriotic Rosary after 8:00 am mass wear blue shirts. Why don't we join together at coffee shop afterwards? Also, we have a Red Rooster on Jan 29 so let's see if we can have something set up for that day for fellowship and a good meal.

Let's start this New Year with a renewed commitment of what can we do for the Knights commitment for the community, not what can the Knights can do for us. We joined the Knights to serve our Parish, our Church, and our Family. We have many good ideas we can try but we need commitments for what we have. Many new and young Knights may just need a helping hand to take the next step in our commitment. Where are you Brothers?
