St. Simon Stock summer Reading List

Grade 6

Reading over the summer helps to maintain reading/ comprehension skills which are vital to success. Students should be encouraged to read as much as possible. There should also be parental involvement---sharing books with students through oral or written discussion to ensure that children are truly understanding material.

ENJOY

1. A Single Shard---Linda Sue Park
2. Where The Mountain Meets The Moon ----- Grace Lin
3. Bud Not Buddy---Christopher Paul Curtis

ACTIVITIES

BOOK 1 : Identify the protagonist. Give three (3) words that could be used as character traits to describe this individual. (b) Using details from the story, provide evidence to support ONE of your given traits.

BOOK 2:

Minli is faced with a difficult decision when she reaches the Old Man of the Moon. She can only ask one question. Which question did she? Why does she ask that question? Which question would you ask the Old Man of the Moon?

BOOK 3:

Who is the antagonist in the beginning of the novel---provide details to show why he was the antagonist.

Bud had many rules to help him along his adventure. Which rule do you think worked the best for him ? Why?

These books will be used as our first week's reading discussion activity in September.
