Keeping Our Faith as a Family
How do we keep our faith as a family? Do we keep it for ourselves, in our families, as a personal treasure like a bank account? Or are we able to share it by our witness, by our acceptance of others, by our openness? We all know that families, especially young families, are often "racing" from one place to another, with lots to do. But did you ever think that this "racing" could also be the race of faith? Christian families are missionary families. They are missionary also in everyday life, in their doing everyday things, as they bring to everything the salt and the leaven of faith!

Dear Parishioners

Greetings and peace to everyone, we have been reading about Renew+Rebuild campaign for the past two weeks. I would like to thank you for your positive response to this campaign. We have 100 registered families here. If everyone contributes little every month ($25), we will be able to reach the goal ($179,000). We have reached 6.5% of the goal($10,550). Even for some people to give $25 every month is really hard. Please contribute what you can. I understand that some are ready to donate, but they want to write the check to Church not to Arch diocese (Renew and Rebuild). Remember 75% of every money you are going to donate will come to our Church. It is the arch diocese that runs the parish and it has various departments and working for the welfare of the parish. We have duty to support the Arch diocese. All those who have not received pledge form last week, please collect the forms. Forms are available at the back of the church. Either you can mail the check to arch diocese or drop off the Rectory. I wish you to have great week.

Thank you.

Fr. Antony David MMI

Note: please make the Check payable to Renew and Rebuild and in memo please mention St. Aloysius Church

Sunday Reflections

Scripture lessons: In the first reading, we find jealousy, in its destructive form of envy, raising its ugly head in Moses' assistant and successor, Joshua. Moses and seventy future helpers were called by the Lord God to the Tent of Meeting for the Spirit-giving Ordination ceremony. But two of the invitees were absent, and Joshua could not tolerate these absent men prophesying in the camp without receiving God's Spirit in the Tent of Meeting. Moses had to instruct Joshua to be tolerant. This selection is intended to provide a Biblical background for Jesus' response to the same kind of jealousy noticed in his apostles. In the second reading, James warns the rich against giving scandal by their denial of social justice to their workers in refusing to give them a living wage, by ignoring the needs of others and by condemning and murdering the innocent and the righteous. Withholding a day-laborer's wage was a terrible act of injustice, tantamount to murder in the agricultural economy of the ancient Middle East. Baptism commits every Christian to work for social justice, through peaceable (rather than violent), means. The Refrain for today's Responsorial Psalm (Ps 19), "The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart," reminds us that obedience to the spirit of the Law will draw us closer to God and so give us lasting joy. In the Gospel, we find intolerance among the apostles of Christ. John complains to Jesus that a man outside their group of selected disciples has been exorcising demons in Jesus' Name, in spite of their attempt to prevent him from doing so. Jesus responds by giving the Apostles lessons in his kind of tolerance and in the reward to be given to outsiders for good deeds they have done for the disciples of Jesus.
