To our graduating class of 2018 – Know that Jesus is always walking right there beside you... patiently loving. Call on Him in your needs and praise Him in your joy. As you move on from high school, let Him be your guide and your light and allow yourself to be His light to others.

We wish you well!

We must always walk in the presence of the Lord, in the light of the Lord, always trying to live in an irreprehensible way. ~ Pope Francis

A Message from One of Our Graduates...

To my peers in Christ,

This Friday, three-hundred or so of our fellow classmates will walk across the stage and finally receive our diplomas that were four years in the making. Then the summer months will pass by and we'll all be making our big leaps into the adult world of college and/or work. From there, the rest of the path is unknown. Yet, no matter where we head to study or work, one thing will always be wherever we are, and that is our Catholic faith and community. We have all been extremely fortunate to grow up in a place where there is a beautiful Catholic church in the middle of town, youth groups to participate in, and for some of us, the opportunity to attend a Catholic elementary education. The Catholic Church is prevalent and is at our disposal here whenever we need it, but as we move out, this community might be harder to find. With that being said, we all must make an effort to find our new community and continue to live through the sacraments. We must keep seeking Jesus.

In reality, college will be difficult, lots of changes, new friends and places; it's all going to be overwhelming and even scary. Some moments we might become lost and not know what to do, but what a huge comfort and relief there is in knowing that Jesus is there through our faith to help calm us and guide us home. Staying connected and getting involved in the church at college is also an incredible way to build authentic relationships with fellow brothers and sisters in Christ. These are the kind of friendships we must seek and in the end will last a lifetime. Continue to pray, practice the sacraments, and go to Mass, because with doing so, this whole new world won't be as scary or uncertain.

I would like to thank all those who have lead us and continue to be faithful examples to the youth here. Thank you for spreading Truth, dedicating your time and knowledge, and preparing us to continue our faith journey throughout the rest of our lives. To all the parishioners, please pray for our futures and for the strengthening of our faith. I look forward to what the future holds for all of us and hope that we will all keep growing in faith.

Ali-Jae

2018 NPBS Graduate

Congratulations

Western Catholic Community

From the Desk of Deacon Bob

Of all the images used for the Holy Spirit, the most profound image for me is that of the "breath of God." Ruah is the Hebrew word for the breath of God. In the very beginning, God breathed upon the waters of the abyss, and life came forth. In Ezekial 37, the prophet sees a valley filled with the dead bones of an army. God tells Ezekiel to prophesy to the bones. As the prophet does so, the bones reconnect and sinew, muscle, and flesh form on the bones. Then God tells Ezekiel to prophesy to the breath, as the prophet does so, the breath of God present in the four winds descends upon the valley and reanimates the dead bodies of the army. God's breath flows through all of creation animating the life in all living creatures, plants, in our soil, our water, our air, and has left its imprint on the mighty geography of our planet.

We like to compartmentalize our lives into "church/religion" on Sunday and then the rest of our time outside of church away from God. When we reimage the Holy Spirit as God's breath, we cannot separate ourselves from God, for God is present in the very air around us which we breathe into our lungs. There is no away time from God for God is everywhere. We exist because God wills it, and our very existence is within God. To try to exist outside of God would bring about instantaneous physical and spiritual death. Present-day humanity that prides itself on being self-reliant, self-made, and beholding to nobody but itself does not want to hear this truth. Without God's breath, our bodies are nothing but a heap of dead, dry bones. We are totally and completely reliant on God.

On Pentecost, the mighty wind of God's breath blew through the city of Jerusalem into the people of that Upper Room. They went forth from that room and, with the power of that Divine Breath, utterly changed humanity. All of humanity's wisdom and knowledge, scientific breakthroughs, art, music, poetry, literature, all things good come to us in the Holy Spirit, the Divine Breath of God. On this Solemnity of the Pentecost, may the Holy Spirit, the Divine Breath of God, stir within our bodies, minds, and souls an equal zeal to go forth and change the world.

WESTERN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY St. John's & St. Scholastica

God Bless the Newly Baptized

Welcome and congratulations to Axel William Goettl, son of Ryan & Ashley Goettl. We rejoice with your family on this joyful occasion!

A few words from Deacon Bob...

Within our faith community, there are many different groups of people who work quietly for the faith. Among these groups are the "quilters". Fran Barten, from our Lady of Good Help, describes this group wonderfully. "They call themselves The Silver Threads. 7 to 12 ladies of our Lady of Good Help Council of Catholic Women of the WCC meet weekly during the cool months to cut, sew, and tie many beautiful quilts. They quilt with joy, through conversation, laughter, frustration, bleeding fingers, snacks and coffee, sitting or standing and absolutely loving giving their time. When asked if there are prayers associated with quilting, one faithful quilter replied, "Yes, we pray that we don't leave sharp tacks in the quilts." Their work IS their prayer. This past year, 17 quilts were donated to victims of floods, fires, to veterans, church and private fundraisers, food shelves, and Mala Strana residents.

The Feast of Corpus Christi

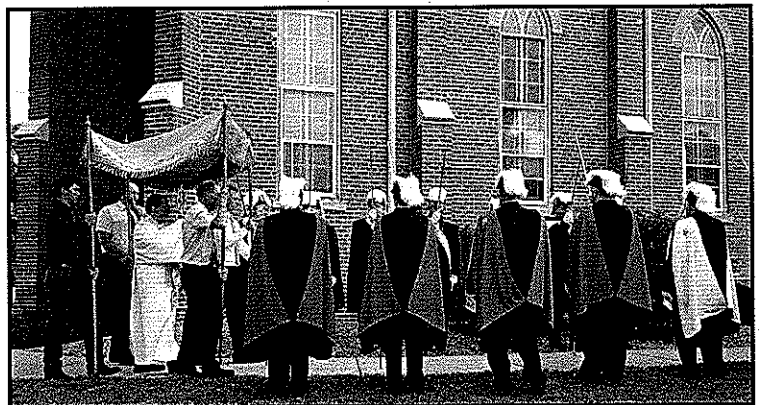

St. John's Catholic United Financial, Union Hill Council invites all parishioners and friends to join us on Sunday, June 3rd to celebrate The Feast of Corpus Christi!

Pope Francis stated this when speaking about the Eucharist, it "sanctifies us, purifies us and unites us in a marvelous communion with God. In that way we learn that the Eucharist is not a prize for the good, but strength for the weak; for sinners it is pardon; it is the viaticum that helps us move forward, to walk."

Join us for this blessed opportunity and experience the beauty and power of our Lord in this prayerful event following the 10am Mass on June 3rd. The Eucharist is processed to outdoor altars. The faith community joins in as Benediction happens at the outdoor altars and in the Church to end the procession. This is a long standing, beautiful tradition celebrated at St. John's.

Join us to celebrate the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ.
