Today's gospel is the story of a blind beggar. Although he could not see Jesus, he made contact with him through his sense of hearing. His finely tuned hearing to the presence of Jesus led him to using another sense to make contact with Jesus, his sense of speech. He cried out, 'Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me.' Even when people around Jesus, including perhaps some of Jesus' disciples, told him to keep quiet, he shouted all the louder, 'Son of David, have pity on me.' Even though he could not see Jesus, he was determined to make contact with him through his gift of speech, through his urgent prayer from his heart. His prayer was an act of faith on his part. He recognized Jesus as 'Son of David' which was one of the titles for the Messiah, and trusting that Jesus could heal his blindness. His making contact through his hearing and his speaking revealed that he had an inner sight. Even though he was blind, he saw Jesus with the eyes of faith. Even when he was rebuked by the crowd for confessing his faith out loud, he refused to be silenced. He had the courage to keep professing his faith, in spite of the hostility and scorn it brought upon him. Jesus' response to the heartfelt prayers of this man was in complete contrast to that of the people around him. Rather than telling him to keep quiet, Jesus told those around him to call him over. When he heard that Jesus was calling him, he first of all threw off his cloak. His cloak, no doubt, served many purposes. It sheltered him from the weather; it was his bed; it was in a sense his home. Yet, he abandoned it, and having done so, he jumped up and went unerringly to Jesus in his blindness. Nothing was going to hold him back from connecting with Jesus, not even his precious cloak. He speaks to all of us of our own need to free ourselves of the binds that stifle our faith and keep us from approaching the Lord

DID YOU KNOW

November 1, 2018 is ALL SAINTS PARISH 12th anniversary

DID YOU KNOW that when we combined the three churches of Plymouth into one parish, we took elements from each building and used them to form the new parish church.

Our high altar was disassembled at St. Vincent's Church and piece-by-piece was re-built in the new church on Willow Street, along with the altar and ambo (lecture stand). The statue of St. Patrick was also used in the main church area. Also making the trip to Willow Street from St. Vincent's Church were the church doors that were placed in our downstairs chapel, along with other elements.

The statue of the risen Christ that hangs suspended above our tabernacle came from the church of St. Stephen's. The Blessed Mother and St. Joseph statues that are placed in the front of All Saints Parish, and the Stations of the Cross that are hanging on the sides of the main church area also came from St. Stephen's. The pews that are in the chapel, the crucifix and tabernacle are also from St. Stephen's.

The building that houses All Saints Parish was/is St. Mary's Church and includes the original paintings on the ceiling that were re-touched in the church's renovation. Also, the stained-glass windows were part of St. Mary's and were produced in Austria almost 100 years ago. The wood carvings at the front of the church, along with the baptismal font and the pipe organ were all part of the old St. Mary's Church. The original altar was moved downstairs into the chapel.

We are three churches that came together to form the one vibrant parish that we are today!
