LIVING BRANCHES

The Gospel and second reading for this Fifth Sunday of Easter emphasize the need for us to remain in Christ, and he in us. This shared life finds expression in the image of the one vine and many branches. We become living branches of the vine, members of the Body of Christ through baptism, Eucharist, and confirmation, sacraments of sharing God's own life. The First Letter of John describes the fruit of this vine as active love of neighbor: "And his commandment is this: we should believe . . . and love one another" (1 John 3:23).

Our first reading from Acts shows us an example of someone who shares in Christ's life in the person of Saint Paul. Paul's fearless witness, even at the risk of his life, is proof to everyone that the risen Lord's Spirit truly fills him with life and is bearing fruit in him.

Today's Good News ~Living with Christ

"Whoever does not enter a sheepfold through the gate but climbs over elsewhere is a thief and robber" (John 10:1). It was a hot summer day when I was eight years old. I came upon a tree laden with apples. Deciding that the owner wouldn't miss a few pieces of fruit, I decided it was time for a snack. I couldn't get the gate open. As I climbed the fence, I caught my arm on a rusty nail, opening a gaping cut under my arm. Apples forgotten, I ran home in pain. I'll bet if I had knocked on the door, I would have been given all the apples I wanted. We do ignore the gatekeeper. Sometimes it's easier to do so. Sometimes we just don't care. Either way, there are always consequences. Maybe it's a bruise or a cut. Or maybe it is a deeper wound, something that needs special attention. Do not be afraid to ask for Jesus' help. He has the balm to bind up our wounds. Depend on his mercy. It is free for the taking. PAUL PENNICK
