LITURGY OF THE WORD

Mark uses the expression “the Twelve” as synonymous with “the Apostles”. Jesus gives his Apostles both power and authority to speak and to act in his name. He commands them to do the work that He himself did—namely, to cast out evil spirits, to heal and to proclaim the Word of God that they received from him.

When he speaks to them about power and authority, there is irony because he links these with love and humility. Contrary to worldly values, He teaches that power and authority should be used for service to neighbor.

The Lord entrusts each of us with gifts and talents for the building up of God's Kingdom. (Liturgy Training Publications)

How are you using yours?

“Patience is not resignation. It is something quite different. Patience means bearing the things of life, the things that are not good, the bad things, the things that we do not want. This patience will cause our lives to matter.”

--Pope Francis

THE BOOK CLUB PRESENTS PHILEMON

Please join the Book Club for a one night only, July 17th, discussion of Paul’s Letter to Philemon. In this small, mighty book, there is escape, slavery, a possible theft, conversion, forgiveness and acceptance.

Come and hear how Paul voiced an idea revolutionary in his day that was destined to break down worldly barriers of division “in the Lord”.

Bring your Bible or borrow one, to the Parish Center on Tuesday, July 17th @ 5:30 p.m. – 6:45 p.m., enjoy a snack and friendly conversation!

RETIREMENT ANNOUNCED

Pope Francis has accepted the retirement of Auxiliary Bishop Dominick Lagonegro. Bishop Lagonegro is looking forward to having more time for pastoral activities and is extremely happy to begin this next phase of his life.

The Bishop expressed his thanks to Cardinal Dolan for his ability to continue to reside in Newburgh. His address and phone numbers will remain the same.

Please remember Bishop Lagonegro in your prayers and be assured that we are in his prayers.

NOVENA TO ST. ANN

Saint Ann’s Church, Sawkill Road, will be having their annual Novena to St. Ann beginning on Wednesday, July 18th through Thursday, July 26th, at 7:00 p.m.

A Mass will be celebrated for the Feast of Saint Ann on Thursday, July 26, 2018.

Why Do Priests Wear Different Colored Vestments Throughout the Year?

The colors of the vestments help bring to mind the sacred mysteries we celebrate throughout the liturgical year. Each color highlights a particular aspect of the season or a specific mystery of the faith.

For example, white and gold symbolize rejoicing and purity of soul. They are worn during Christmas and Easter. Red calls to mind Christ’s blood and is worn on Good Friday and to commemorate those saints who were martyred for our faith.

Red also signifies the burning fire of God’s love. Thus, red vestments are worn on Pentecost.

JULY 15, 2018 -- FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Father Rick De LaPeña and the book club members are hosting a dedication ceremony of the Sisters of Saint Ursula Parish Center at St Josephs.

Please come and meet many of the sisters who used to live and serve in the former convent, share our excitement in the new happenings in our Parish and enjoy light refreshments with us!
