Reflection on the Scriptures

"Do not continue in ignorance, but try to discern the will of the Lord." —Ephesians 5:17

St. Jerome asserted: "Ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ" (Catechism, 133). If we are ignorant of Christ, we will not discern the will of the Lord (Ephesians 5:17). This means we will not make "the most of the present opportunity" (Ephesians 5:16). But through knowledge of the Scriptures and through good discernment of God's will, we are saved from a futile (see 1 Peter 1:18), vain (see Ecclesiastes 1:2) existence.

Therefore:

- "Keep this book of the law on your lips. Recite it by day and by night, that you may observe carefully all that is written in it; then you will successfully attain your goal" (Joshua 1:8).
- Let the law of the Lord be your joy, and study God's law day and night (see Psalm 1:2).
- Devour God's words and make them the joy and happiness of your heart (Jeremiah 15:16).
- Abide in God's Word (John 8:31).
- Devote yourself to the apostles' teaching (Acts 2:42).
- Each day study the Scriptures (Acts 17:11).
- Preach God's Word and "stay with this task whether convenient or inconvenient — correcting, reproving, appealing — constantly teaching and never losing patience" (2 Timothy 4:2).
- How precious is God's Word! Love, live, and proclaim His Word.
