Planting the Seeds of Good Stewardship in our Children

Each weekend the children are encouraged by the presider to come forward and bring their offerings and place them in the basket on the Altar. Through this practice we want to teach our children how to be good stewards. At the same time, we want to teach our children that our monetary offering is only one way of being good stewards. All that we have comes from a loving God and in gratitude we acknowledge that by offering our time, treasure, and talents to serve God and his people.

Souper Bowl of Caring was inspired by a simple prayer: “Lord, even as we enjoy the Super Bowl football game, help us be mindful of those who are without a bowl of soup to eat”. This prayer along with a young seminary student started the youth movement to come together for football and fun, and to unify the nation in helping the needy by collecting dollars and canned food that will benefit those in your own community. All across the United States, groups will gather to collect on the weekend of the “Big Game”, Feb. 2 & 3. All proceeds collected here will go to support the food pantry here in Hernando. We ask that you be generous.

- Did you know? 48 million Americans live in poverty?
- 1 in 7 Americans face hunger every day?
- More than 630,000 people in the United States are homeless?
- 23% of those struggling went to college?
- Or that 16 million children live in food insecure households?

We are asking all parishioners of the Diocese to consider a gift to the Catholic Service Appeal on the weekend of February 9th and 10th.

The CSA gives us the opportunity to act together as a Diocesan family by helping those in need.

Every gift, regardless of the size, is important to the success of the CSA. Our goal this year is to get 100% participation. Every gift does make a difference.

A letter from Bishop Joseph Kopacz was sent out asking for your pledge to support the ministries of our Diocese. This letter was sent to all parishioners. Please give prayerful consideration to your level of support to help fund the ministries and services supported by the Appeal. LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

FAMILY IDEAS

We come together at the Liturgy of the Eucharist to give thanks to the God of all of us. The word ‘eucharist’ means ‘thanksgiving’. We give thanks at Mass to God for all God has done for us and for God’s great love for each of us.

Take a walk or a hike as a family and admire the beauty of God’s creation. As a family, talk about the wonders of creation and the people who care about us. Give thanks to God for all that God has done for us.

Talk with your children about why we stand and kneel at Mass. We stand as a sign of honor before the God who gives us life and all blessings. We kneel in adoration during the Eucharistic Prayer as the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ.

FAMILY PRAYER

God of all generations, thank you for being here with our family today and giving us the gift of one another. Guide us to worship together at Sunday Mass with our parish community. May we live each day with faith in you, hope in the future, and love for all people. Amen.

A CALL TO HOLINESS BY POPE FRANCIS.

39. Here we have to be careful. I am not referring to a rationalism inimical to Christian faith. It can be present within the Church, both among the laity in parishes and teachers of philosophy and theology in centres of formation. Gnostics think that their explanations can make the entirety of the faith and the Gospel perfectly comprehensible. They absolutize their own theories and force others to submit to their way of thinking. A healthy and humble use of reason in order to reflect on the theological and moral teaching of the Gospel is one thing. It is another to reduce Jesus' teaching to a cold and harsh logic that seeks to dominate everything. [37] May 26, 2019 A doctrine without mystery

40. Gnosticism is one of the most sinister ideologies because, while unduly exalting knowledge or a specific experience, it considers its own vision of reality to be perfect. Thus, perhaps without even realizing it, this ideology feeds on itself and becomes even more myopic. It can become all the more illusory when it masks itself as a disembodied spirituality. For gnosticism "by its very nature seeks to domesticate the mystery", [38] whether the mystery of God and his grace, or the mystery of others' lives.

UN LLAMADO A LA SANTIDAD DEL PAPA FRANCISCO.

39. Pero estamos atentos. No me refiero a los racionalistas enemigos de la fe cristiana. Esto puede ocurrir dentro de la Iglesia, tanto en los laicos de las parroquias como en quienes enseñan filosofía o teología en centros de formación. Porque también es propio de los gnósticos creer que con sus explicaciones ellos pueden hacer perfectamente comprensible toda la fe y todo el Evangelio. Absolutizan sus propias teorías y obligan a los demás a someterse a los razonamientos que ellos usan. Una cosa es un sano y humilde uso de la razón para reflexionar sobre la enseñanza teológica y moral del Evangelio; otra es pretender reducir la enseñanza de Jesús a una lógica fría y dura que busca dominarlo todo[37].

40. El gnosticismo es una de las peores ideologías, ya que, al mismo tiempo que exalta indebidamente el conocimiento o una determinada experiencia, considera que su propia visión de la realidad es la perfección. Así, quizá sin advertirlo, esta ideología se alimenta a sí misma y se encefalea aún más. A veces se vuelve especialmente engañosa cuando se disfraza de una espiritualidad desencarnada. Porque el gnosticismo «por su propia naturaleza quiere domesticar el misterio»[38], tanto el misterio de Dios y de su gracia, como el misterio de la vida de los demás.
